Miss Margaret Edgerton and her brother, Alton Edgerton, returned last evening to their home in Northfield, after having been the guests of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Gale of Wellington street over the week end.

"Africa" is the topic of an illustrated lecture to be given in the Masonic assembly Tuesday evening by the pastor of the First Presbyterian church. The lecture will be given under the auspices of St. Aldemar commandery.

The regular business meeting and social of the Philanthia class of the Congregational church will be held Wednesday evening with Mrs. Blanche Bell at her home on Maple avenue. Let every member make an effort to attend.

Guy Vitagliano, formerly manager of the Diversi Fruit Store, who has been spending several days in the city on business, left this morning for Boston, where he will remain for a few days before returning to his home in Concord, N. H.

Horace K. Sowles of Barre, a senior in the Harvard Medical college, was operated upon at the Massachusetts General hospital in Boston last Thursday night for appendicitis and at the last report (Saturday morning) he was said to be resting comfortably.

The monthly meeting of the Vermont Telephone & Telegraph Co., employees was held Friday evening, the subjects under discussion being, "Nos. 1 and 2, Private Branch Exchange Systems." Charles E. Davis, equipment foreman, Springfield, Mass., western division, New England Telephone & Telegraph Co., explained the principles and working of different systems to the employees of the company. The following forenoon was spent in inspection of the local systems at the Vermont Mutual Insurance Co., National Life Insurance Co., and the Consolidated Lighting Co.

The heavy storm of Saturday and Sunday worked havoc with the country roads hereabouts, and the highways which were in fairly good condition for two weeks prior to the rain were soon reduced to very soft slush as the result of the frost leaving the ground. Automobiles were driving over a dusty road between Barre and Montpelier Friday, but on Saturday and Sunday they ran into quagmires. A particularly bad spot was near the Emile greenhouse, where several automobiles came to grief at various times Saturday and Sunday. One machine was so badly mired that the owner hit himself with an electric car in order to be drawn out onto fairly firm ground, while still another was forced to leave his car stuck all Saturday night. Those who are accustomed to use the roads in the early spring say they never saw the roads "go bad" so quickly as on this occasion.

Mrs. Martha Gallagher was tendered a surprise party at her home, 5 Laurel street, Saturday evening, when friends to the number of 40 called on her unexpectedly. Nearly every member of the company is a member of the ladies' auxiliary to the A. O. U. M., with which Mrs. Gallagher has been affiliated for a long time. Progressive whist was the principal diversion of the evening and dainty favors were awarded the winners. First positions were taken by Mrs. Weston Walker and Mrs. James Grogan, while the second honors were awarded Mrs. William Skerrette and Mrs. James Hastings. One of the delightful features of the gathering came when the president of the division, Mrs. Luecky Goodie, presented Mrs. Gallagher a handsome assortment of table linen. The gift was conveyed, with the felicitations of the guests, in a feeling little speech, to which Mrs. Gallagher replied warmly.

Miss Elizabeth Carson of Laurel street, a teacher in the city schools, resumed her duties to-day, after having passed 10 days with relatives in Littleton, N. H. Miss Carson was accompanied from Littleton Saturday by her sister, Mrs. Francis Vignault, and the latter's little daughter, who will make an extended visit with Mr. and Mrs. T. C. Carson.

More onlookers mingled with seriously purposed people who really intended to bid at the auction sale of the "Hole in the Wall" restaurant Saturday afternoon. Charles F. Smith, grand juror in the proceedings was Deputy Sheriff H. J. Skayton, who ordered the sale as the result of an alleged broken contract. Bidding was spirited from the outset. William Wright, Jr., secured most of the $4,000 and it is reported that Mr. Wright contemplated resuming the little lunch-room and reopening it in the old quarters between the Worthen block and the Wheelock building.

A broken strand of wire near St. Monica's church on Summer street last evening was responsible for a showing down and then a lapse in the lighting service of the Consolidated Lighting Co. People leaving from the First Presbyterian church discovered the break and reported it to Manager C. F. Miller, who detailed a small gang of wiremen to the scene of the mishap. For several minutes the city was in darkness, although the break was later repaired and the service resumed. Had the live wire struck the ground in a poorly lighted locality it is possible that someone would have stumbled against it in the dark. The break occurred near the spot where a man once nearly escaped electrocution one dark and rainy night a few years ago.

Members of the company playing "The Trail of the Lonesome Pine" which is to be the attraction at the Barre opera house this evening, arrived in the city last night from Burlington.

Frank Stowe of South Main street left this morning for Bennington, where he was called by the illness of his father, Theodore Stowe, who has been passing the winter in the Soldiers' home.

Miss Lucile Robinson, who has been passing two weeks in Burlington, where she was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. E. O. Walter, returned to Barre yesterday and resumed her duties in the city schools this morning.

G. Debernardi of Jersey Heights, N. J., arrived in the city last evening, having been called here by the death of his mother, Mrs. Teresa Debernardi, whose death at the age of 84 years, occurred at her home, 94 Summer street, Saturday afternoon.

Miss Elizabeth Carson of Laurel street, a teacher in the city schools, resumed her duties to-day, after having passed 10 days with relatives in Littleton, N. H. Miss Carson was accompanied from Littleton Saturday by her sister, Mrs. Francis Vignault, and the latter's little daughter, who will make an extended visit with Mr. and Mrs. T. C. Carson.

Spring Millinery

At Popular Prices

This season, more than usual, ladies are calling for neat, attractive Hats made in the very latest styles, that will wear well and give credit to the wearer of having a five-dollar hat, and the price is but a little more than half that price.

All are individual Hats—no two alike. When you buy styles like these you usually see several of the same style. No other. Hat like yours, if you buy your Hat of us.

If in a hurry, we will take care of you at once. If not, please give us a day or so time. We can please you and at the same time save you a little money.

Munsing Underwear and Black Cat Hosiery

Your next purchase of Underwear and Hosiery will be of the spring and summer kinds. If you have ever used these makes, you need no further advice from us. You are using the very best that your money can buy.

Here is a point to consider: Black Cat Hosiery and Munsing Underwear cost no more than common kinds. They fit better, wear longer, and have that style that ladies so much admire.

There is an increasing demand for SILK HOSIERY. A few seasons ago, ladies did not expect any great amount of wear from Silk Hosiery. Then they wore them only occasionally. To-day they are worn every day, and the demand is for more service; and the Black Cat Hosiery has in it that actual amount of wear.

If Black Cat Silk Hosiery won't stand your requirements, then you are at the last ditch in the Silk Hosiery proposition.

New Wash Goods

Most of these are new goods that have just arrived. Kinds that are really very beautiful for spring costumes.

New Yard-Wide Silk-Edged Crepe De Chine in Apricot, White, Rocky Mountain Blue, Pink, Light Blue, and Navy Blue. These, 50c per yard.

Gabardine, Voile, Yard-Wide, in White, Pink, Apricot and Rocky Mountain Blue.

New lot of Yard-Wide Silk Muslin Pongee in colors of Reseda, Nile, Maize, Rocky Mountain Blue, and Light Blue. These are for dresses, and at the price of 39c they are the best Silk buy on the market.

You have no doubt long before now noticed that when we have a new cloth we have a line of best colors; in other words, we have a selected assortment.

New Wash Goods, as fast as they come out the market, will be seen in our stock.

New Suits and Coats

We are now receiving by nearly every express new models in Suits and Coats, and as the demand for these garments seems to increase every day we are doing all we can to get the merchandise that is right, and the styles that are the latest. We have just received by express from two of our best houses a lot of new models in both Suits and Coats. Some of these are garments that we put in when in New York last week; others are new models that have come out since.

At $15.00 we have some very good Suit values that are made from a good, fine, all-wool Serge, and in a number of the season's best models.

In the better grade Suits, we can give you a good variety of exclusive models, that are made from the season's best materials, such as Poplins, Gabardines, Whipcords, Serges, and Venetians.

Our line of Coats is complete in every detail. We have a large display of the season's latest models at popular prices.

The latest things in Neckwear. Styles that every garment demands is the new styled Vestee. These come in scores of styles at prices from 25c up. The popular numbers sell at 50c, beautifully made. It's a wonder to us how they can be made at such a small price.

P. M. Depatie returned last night to St. Albans, after visiting in the city during the week end.

Mrs. Pearl Pittsley and daughter, Verna, have returned from St. Albans, where they have been visiting at the home of O. E. Arvey for the past two weeks.

Lawrence Wilcox and Fred Reynolds returned this morning from Brookfield, where they have been visiting for a week at the home of Mr. Wilcox's mother, Mrs. Helen Wilcox.

Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Sillway of Morrisville were in the city yesterday, visiting relatives, having just returned from Vineland, N. J., where they have been spending several weeks. Late in the day they returned to their home.

Another chapter in the alleged uncovering of a traffic in liquor at the city farm and along the high road between the farm and the city, was written on the records in city court this forenoon when George Stacy appeared before Judge H. W. Scott and pleaded not guilty to a charge of furnishing. Stacy was unable to furnish bail of $500 and was remitted to police headquarters, where he remained until a hearing in his case started this afternoon at 2 o'clock. The authorities allege that Stacy is the man who furnished the whiskey for one of the inmates last week. It is also claimed that the inmate, after his arrest for intoxication, placed the burden of responsibility on Stacy. The latter was arrested late Saturday night by Officer John W. Dineen, who acted on a warrant issued at the request of Grand Juror William Wisbart.
